Get groovy with Lambs Farm at Peace, Love and Lambs Event

Libertyville, IL - Harken back to this defining decade with Lambs Farm's 50th anniversary community celebration, Celebrating the '60s: Peace, Love and Lambs. Bring your blankets and chairs for a full day of music, activities, food and fun. What is a '60s celebration without groovy tunes? You'll be All Shook Up when Travis Morris takes the stage as the King himself, Elvis Presley. And don't forget to Twist and Shout when the Beatles tribute band American English performs. Additional bands and a DJ will also provide music throughout the event.

Although children will not remember the '60s, they can get into the fun as well! There will be a giant inflatable and many activities. Ben the Bubble Guy will be creating giant bubbles during the day, and Harvey the Wonder Dog, star of books such as Harvey's Hungry Adventure, will be on hand for book readings and meet and greets. The farmyard, carousel and mini golf course will be open late, so don't miss this opportunity to visit with the llamas and sheep as the sun goes down. Food will also be available for purchase.

Celebrating the '60s: Peace, Love and Lambs is Saturday, August 20, 2 - 9:30 p.m. with American English headlining the event at 7 p.m. Tickets are $8 through August 12, $10 at the gate. Children 12 and younger are free. To purchase tickets call 847.990.3775. For more information, visit the website at www.lambsfarm.org.
