

news release

for immediate release: October 1, 2013
contact: Natasha Taylor, Communications Coordinator 847.990.3706
ntaylor@lambsfarm.org

Enjoy Country Charm in the Big City to Support Lambs Farm

Libertyville, IL – Join us at Harvesting the Spirit: DownTOWN on the Farm, for a gala affair with country flair to support Lambs Farm. The event being held on Saturday, November 2 from 7 – 11 p.m. at the distinguished Sidney Yates Gallery in the Chicago Cultural Center will raise money for Lambs Farm's programs for men and women with developmental disabilities.

Mingle with friends as you enjoy a spectacular reception featuring delectable hors d'oeuvres, gourmet seated dining, and dancing to the music of The Mix, all with a country twist. Come in cocktail attire or put together an elegant mix of denim and diamonds or black tie and boots. Guests will find more than great food and drink – they can also bid on fabulous live and silent auction items or take part in the paddle raiser to benefit a Lambs Farm program.

Reservations are $250 each. Many Sponsorships are available, some of which come with complimentary seating at various levels, a free listing in our ad book, or other recognition opportunities. Proceeds from the event support Lambs Farm's vocational, residential, recreational and social programs. For more information about this event or to purchase tickets, contact Nikki Bonamarte at 847.990.3733 or nex@lambsfarm.org, or visit the website at lambsfarm.org.

Lambs Farm is a premier nonprofit organization whose mission is to help people with developmental disabilities lead productive, happy lives and connecting with the human spirit in us all. Based near Libertyville, Illinois, Lambs Farm strives to maintain exemplary vocational, residential and recreational programs, and to operate our organization in a manner that will continue to help people grow.

14245 W. Rockland Road, Libertyville, IL, 60048 * p:847.362.4636 * f:847.362.0742 * www.lambsfarm.org