Lambs Farm Mega Pet Adoption Event

Libertyville, IL – On June 14 and 15, Lambs Farm will be hosting a two-day Mega Pet Adoption Event with The Anti-Cruelty Society from 11am – 3pm. Twenty dogs and ten cats will be available for adoption at The Dogwood Garden & Pet Center and they can be brought home that same day.

Beginning in May, Lambs Farm became a 100% rescue-based operation through partnership with The Anti-Cruelty Society. The nominal adoption fee charged is shared with them to support their expenses associated with transport, spaying/neutering and inoculations required for rescue animals.

The Lambs Farm Pet Shop was the first non-sheltered business in the country to employ people with developmental disabilities, and remains a wonderful growth opportunity offering meaningful employment in a nurturing environment.

All pet adoptions not only provide homes for animals in need, they also benefit the two nonprofit organizations to continue their missions. Stop by to meet representatives from the Anti-Cruelty Society and many pets in need of loving homes.

For more information call the Dogwood Garden & Pet Center at 847-367-7606.
