

Helping people with developmental disabilities lead productive, happy lives and connecting with the human spirit in us all.

celebrating 50 years
of service

news release

for immediate release: September 14, 2012

contact: Jackie Rachev, Communications Coordinator

847.990.3706

jrachev@lambsfarm.org

Harvesting the Spirit 2012 – sip, savor and support Lambs Farm

Libertyville, IL – Come together at Harvesting the Spirit – 2012 Annual Benefit, to sip, savor and support Lambs Farm. The event, held Saturday, October 13, 7 – 11 p.m., at the magnificent Winter Garden at the Chicago Public Library – Harold Washington Library Center, will raise money for Lambs Farm’s programs for men and women with developmental disabilities.

Mingle with friends as you enjoy tastings from three food stations paired with fine wines and craft beers from Revolution Brewery. Meet renowned Celebrity Chef Jimmy Bannos, and sample delicious morsels at his food station featuring his restaurants, Heaven on Seven and The Purple Pig. Guests will find more than great food and drink – they can bid on fantastic items in the live and silent auctions or during the paddle raiser, and dance the night away to the toe-tapping music of Dan Hayes.

Reservations are $300 each. Proceeds from the event support Lambs Farm’s vocational, residential, recreational and social programs. For more information about this event or to purchase tickets, call 847.990.3733 or visit the website at lambsfarm.org.

Lambs Farm is a premier nonprofit organization whose mission is to help people with developmental disabilities lead productive, happy lives and connecting with the human spirit in us all. Based near Libertyville, Illinois, Lambs Farm strives to maintain exemplary vocational, residential and recreational programs, and to operate our organization in a manner that will continue to help people grow.